Sports

Basketball and Cheer are in their last week of the season. The boys have been having some success as well as some heart breaking losses. The boys are working hard every day and having a great time. Thanks to the coaches for all their hard work and long hours!

Band Concert

On December 16th please attend our 5-12 grade band concert at LRHS. You are sure to be treated to some very festive holiday music. The students have been working very hard and are looking forward to showing off their hard work!
