

MMIW - MMIP Activities (2)

Missing and Murdered Indigenous Women and People

Activity Ideas for Spreading Awareness, Companion to Educational Resources

Educational Resources

It is important to first become informed. For an introduction and resources to learn about MMIW and MMIP, follow this link to the previous outline \(Link\)

Showing Support

1. REDress Project \(Link\)
2. Walking With Our Sisters \(Link\)
 - a. Moccasin coloring page to design & support Walking With Our Sisters \(Link\)
3. May 5th wear red and display red dresses in public spaces
4. Calling on governments to be accountable to the injustices and systemic barriers in legislation
5. Attend an awareness event
6. Participate in a prayer circle or candlelight vigil hosted by community

Raising Awareness

1. Create posters/resources/exhibits to help share information
2. Running for Missing and Murdered Indigenous Women \(Link\)
3. How can we help \(Link\)
 - a. Tip 1 - Education
 - b. Tip 2 - Use your voice
 - c. Tip 3 - Support, Not Shame
 - d. Tip 4 - Practice Self Care

Promoting Healthy Relationships

1. We R Native - My Relationships \(Link\)
2. Be a Good Ancestor \(Link\)
3. Intimate Partner Violence and Respect Wheel \(Link\)
4. Youth Magazine, Relationships - Healthy/Unhealthy, When there is danger \(Link\)

Links From Other Educators

1. Thinking About Red Dress Day For Elementary Students \(Link\)
2. Toolkit items for Red Dress Day \(Link\)
 - a. Faceless Doll Project template