

NEED HELP WITH INTERNET COSTS?

What is it?

A temporary FCC national program to help households struggling to afford internet service during the pandemic.

The benefit provides:

- Up to $50/month discount for broadband services;
- Up to $75/month discount for households on qualifying Tribal lands; and
- A one-time discount of up to $100 for a laptop, desktop computer, or tablet purchased through some participating providers.

Who is eligible?

A household is eligible if one member of the household:

- Has an income that is at or below 135% of the Federal Poverty Guidelines or participates in certain government assistance programs;
- Receives benefits under the free and reduced-price school lunch or breakfast program;
- Received a Federal Pell Grant during the current award year;
- Experienced a substantial loss of income due to job loss or furlough since February 29, 2020; or
- Meets the eligibility criteria for a participating provider's existing low-income or COVID-19 program.

How to apply

1. Verify eligibility at GetEmergencyBroadband.org
2. Contact a participating internet provider to enroll and use the discount.

Already have low-income internet service or Lifeline?

Ask your internet provider if you can enroll directly to use the discount.

Tip: Call the number on your bill or search for the company name and EBB.
